WARM CONTEST FOR GOLD MEDAL

Mr. Ross Wins Handsome Trophy, the Best Debaters' Medal.

Mr. W. E. Ross was successful in winning the best debater's medal Friday night, given by the Mu Sigma Rho Litning the best debater's medal Friday night, given by the Mu Sigma Rho Literary Society.

This occasion is always one of the principal events of the year, and Friday night eclipsed even the usual record. The Mu Sigma Rho hall was packed, many ladies were scattered through the audience, and the enthusiasm displayed was sufficient to inspire the youthful orators to do their best. The subject for debate was: "Resolved. That the government of England is preferable to that of the United States."

Mr. Cutchins was the first speaker, and in a few preliminary remarks stated the question and his position, following this with a strong, logical argument in favor of the home government.

Mr. Cutchins was followed by Mr. Fred Follard, who upheld the affirmative side of the question. Mr. Pollard's speech was well prepared and well delivered; rhetorical beauty and elequence characterized it throughout; this, in connection with a gracoful delivery and pleasant voice, make him a most promising young orator, and in a purely oratorical contest the result might have been dif-voice, make him a most promising young orator, and in a purely oratorical contest the result might have been different.

Mr. Pollard was followed by Mr. Ross, who supported the negative side of the question. Mr. Ross arose, and after a few pleasant remarks plunged at once into the heart of it, and in a masterful speech of about twenty-five minutes he argued forcefully for the United States government, showing deep research and careful preparation. His gestures were few and effective; his voice well trained, and his whole appearance that of one deeply absorbed in the question before him, which helped to convince the audience of the sincerity of his opinions. Mr. Ross closed his remarks with a burst of eloquence which held his hearers spellbound, and when the judges left the room there was little doubt in the minds of many as to who was the successful contestant.

The judges on this occasion were Dr.

SANG GOSPEL HYMNS IN RICHMOND'S SLUMS

The "Ballard House Mission" held its record service last night, and the voices of ministers preaching and Christian women singing gospel hymns, sounded strange, indeed, in that neighborhood. The echoes of the many dead years since the Trinity Methodist congregation worshipped in the ancient building nearly were swakened. The mission workers spoke and sang in the streets and alleys in the neighborhood of Mayo and Franklin Street, and later repaired to the Bailard House, where, at 11:30 free hot lunch was served. The meetings so far have been so successful that they will be continued. The "Ballard House Mission" held its

NISARD IS RECALLED

French Ambassador to the Vatican Leaves Rome for Indefinite Period.

GROWS OUT LOUBET'S VISIT

Pope Is Greatly Moved Over the Conflict Between the Vatican and France.

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, May 21.--M. Nisard, the French ambassador to the Vatican, acting under instructions from Paris, left Rome tonight for an unlimited vacation, as a protest against what France considers the indelicate attitude of the Vatican in compiling two different notes concerning the visit of President Loubet to Rome.

The Pope is greatly worried over the conflict between the Vatican and France. To-day His Holiness suspended all public and private audiences and conferred lle and private audiences and conferred at length with the Papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Morry Del Val, who repeated to him what he had said to M. Nisard. He stated that France had misunderstood his intention and that he had omitted the phrase regarding the recall of the nuncle from the note to France out of regard to the republic, while he inserted it in the notes to the other governments. The missing phrase emphasized the firm determination of the papacy to prevent Catholic sovereigns from coming to Rome as guests of the King of Italy.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

French Authorities Explain Reason for Their Action.

PARIS, May 21.—The formal announcement of the recall of M. Nisard, the French ambassador to the Holy See, was made this evening, and the following official statement was communicated to made this evening, and the following official statement was communicated to the press:

"Ambassador Nisard is recalled and the secretary of the embassy will take charse of affairs during his absence. The antbassador will leave Rome this evening."
Definite official action was not taken until late in the day. Prior to this M.
Nisard had been directed to endeavor to secure from the Vatiean authentic information relative to the protest forwarded to the powers. It is understood that the interviews between the ambassador and the papal authorities were not satisfactory, the latter not giving complete information in the matter, and, therefore, the recall without further delay was decided upon.

It is learned in official quarters that the government's plans, as carefully outlined, do not anticipate the denunciation of the concordat or any present step beyond the recall of M. Nisard, The government's programme, it is said in a authoritative quarter, is as follows:

"M. Nisard's leave will be indefinite, but no further steps are contemplated at present, unless Parliament directs that further action be taken. Efforts are beling made to induce the premier to follow up the ambassador's recall by a denunciation of the concordat, but M. Combes does not wish to go to that extreme. The result of the rupture with the Vatican promises to materially strengthen M.
Combes's administration, as bringing to him the support of many elements heretofore opposing him."

TO FATHER. TO FATHER.

Darling father, thou hast left us,
And we long for three in valn.
But we know that thou art freed from
All thy earthly care and pain;
Freed from suffering, thy spirit
And in peaceful rest thy soul.
Dearest father, thou has entered in the blessed heavenly goal.

And to be resigned we are trying,
For we know God deemed it best.
And thy face, so calm and peaceful
Told us thou hast found sweetest;
And we could not call thee back here
To this world of pain and woe,
When the perfect joy of heaven
Thou forever shalt know.

But our lonely hearts are aching
For the face and smile we miss,
And we long for the dear father
Whom we never more shall kiss;
Home's sweet sunshine seems to vanish,
As thy face no more we see,
And without thy loving presence
It no more a home can be,

And thy place forever vacant,
Will bring memories of the past,
And our hearts will e'er be aching
For the times that could not last;
We, perhaps, have caused thee sorrow
That we did not wish to do,
But we know thou hast forgiven,
Dearest father, kind and true.

And thy spirit ever loving.

Hovers still around us here;
Everything and place remind us
Of a precious father dear.
And it may not be long, father,
Ere we'll meet in realms above,
And be sweetly reunited
In eternal, boundless love.

Then no more shall pain or sorrow Come to grieve an aching heart. And in Jojous realms we'll linger. Nevermore we then shall part; And our blessed dreams of heaven Will our souls then find fulfilled. When at last life's care and sorrows Shall forevermore be stilled. FROM CHILDREN
